

911 Telecommunications OperatorCity of Surrey, RCMP Support Services

As a 911 Telecommunications Operator, you will be the first point of contact to the public, responding to various types of calls that include emergency and non-emergency 911 calls, complaints, and general public inquiries. You will react quickly, logically, efficiently and calmly to all emergency situations and with professionalism and tact. Qualifications: • Completion of Grade 12 supplemented by related training and experience • Have an accurate typing speed of 45 words per minute (testing will be administered) • Our ideal candidate is a respectful and diplomatic individual with strong listening and communication skills. You are a critical thinker and use sound judgement to help make decisions quickly and accurately • You are detail oriented, a pro at multi-tasking, and you work well under stressful situations • Your geographical knowledge of Surrey will also be a huge asset • This position requires an Enhanced RCMP Reliability Security Clearance that will be administered to those who are successful through the process. Apply online by February 14, 2019 at www.surreycareers.ca

Job Posted: January 26, 2019

Crime Analyst, Reg. F/TCity of Coquitlam, RCMP Civilian Services, $82,284 - $97,240

You have a compulsion for critical thinking, a talent for finding trends and patterns that others miss, and an uncanny ability to explain your findings in a way that others can understand. You are skilled and experienced in a range of quantitative and qualitative research methods to find solutions to complex real world problems. Qualifications: • Completion of a university degree in sociology, criminology, economics, or another discipline related to the work, including post-secondary coursework in applied research and statistics • Professional experience in research and analysis • Excellent oral and written communication skills, including presentation and public speaking • Proficiency in MS Office applications as well as software applications related to research and analysis • Ability to pass an RCMP top secret security clearance • Applicants must be able to obtain and maintain an RCMP top secret security clearance during their course of employment. • Shortlisted applicants must pass an RCMP National Test for Intelligence Analysts in order to proceed to the interview stage. Apply online by 5 p.m. February 8, 2019 at coquitlam.ca/jobs

Job Posted: January 26, 2019

Employment SpecialistRichmond Society for Community Living, Richmond, $48,000 - $51,000

Reporting to the Employment Coordinator this position provides employment planning and preparation services. This position is responsible for building partnerships with employers to create job opportunities. Qualifications: • Bachelor's degree/diploma in business, marketing or a related discipline. Three or more years in job development, employer outreach, and employment counselling. An equivalent combination of education and experience will be considered • Excellent written and verbal communication skills • Thorough understanding of labor market information and trends • Demonstrated ability to work as a member of a team • Strong organizational, planning, and time management skills • Ability to facilitate group activities • Ability to be flexible with schedule • Valid BC driver license/access to vehicle, approved first aid and clear criminal record search are required. Submit resumes by February 8, 2018. Fax: 604-279-7048. Email: kbasi@rscl.org

Job Posted: January 26, 2019